Red Berry founder makes it to a Top 50 South West Entrepreneurs list.

Helen is named among top 50 South West entrepreneurs

MANAGING Director of Shepton Mallet recruitment company Red Berry, Helen Lacey, has been named in Business Leader Magazine's Top 50 South-West Entrepreneur list.

Helen is one of only three women who have made the prestigious list.

It includes key figures from well-known businesses such as Superdry, Pieminister, and Lovehoney as well as celebrity entrepreneurs such as Dragons' Den's Deborah Meaden.

Helen said: "It was a genuine surprise to receive the email from Business Leader Magazine telling me I had made the list of their top 50 South-West Entrepreneurs. I am extremely honoured to be featured especially alongside Deborah Meaden – a woman that I really admire and is an inspiration to me. It is even more special to be one of only three women who have made the top 50."
